

The fourth Fat and Oil Conference-2024.

To keep the height: how to maintain the dynamics of production and exports

April 26th

The main hall

09:00-10:00

Registration of participants, welcome coffee break

Plenary session
10:00-11:30

The forecast for the development of the industry until 2035

1. The global situation of the fat and oil market and Russia's place in it. Prospects for the global production and consumption of vegetable oils and meal.
2. Maintaining the dynamics of the growth of the raw material base and the balance of processing capacities.
3. Monetary and non-monetary measures of state support for the export of fat and oil products.

11:30-12:00

30 min

Coffee break

Session 1
12:00-14:00

Export reserves 2030: barriers, geography and redistribution

1. Logistical difficulties: insurance, freight, hidden sanctions, railway capacity.
2. Problems of passing export payments: ways to solve them.
3. Where and how to expand the geography of supplies of fat and oil products?
4. How to change the structure of exports by product type in order to export with higher added value? How can we increase our retail presence in export destinations?

14:00-15:00

60 min

Lunch

Session 2
15:00 - 17:00

Non-tariff regulation

1. The results of the reform of extended producer responsibility.
2. Prohibition of certain types of packaging within the framework of the federal project "Closed-loop Economy".
3. The transition of fat-and-oil enterprises to the II category of negative environmental impact.
4. The course of the labeling experiment (Honest sign).

The second room. Technical regulation and standardization of FOPs

Session 1
12:00 - 14:00

Modifications on the technical regulations of the Customs Union "Technical Regulations for fat and oil products"

1. New requirements for safety indicators, labeling, conformity assessment, production and transportation of fat-and-oil products changes in the technical regulations of the Customs Union "Technical Regulations for fat-and-oil products". Transitional provisions and the procedure for entry into force.
2. Development of standards for certain types of edible oil and fat products, taking into account the requirements of the amendment to technical regulation. Standardization of promising vegetable oil processing products.

Session 2
15:00 - 17:00

Modifications on the Technical regulations of the Customs Union "Safety requirements for food additives, flavorings and technological aids"

Review of new obligatory requirements for food ingredients: regulation of use, rationing, turnover, conformity assessment and labeling of food ingredients. The procedure for putting it into effect.

17:00-19:00

Buffet